FROM JOHN NORTON, ESQ.

YORK the 9th. May 1758

SR.,—I take the liberty to Recommend the bearers hereof, Mr. Thurston & Mr. Cary to your favour, they have I believe raised about 30 Men for the new Regiment, the former is in hopes of a 2d. Lieutenancy & the latter to be an Ensign, they are both very Sober young men & I doubt not but will behave themselves in such manner as to merit your esteem. Any civilitys you shew them will much oblige Sr. yr. most humbl. Servt.
